Haydon's Mill.

Weather cold.
News very scarce this week.
This village is the order of the day in this vicinity.

J. B. Ellis, of Bagdad, was in this vicinity Thursday.
Everybody in this locality is very anxious to know who the writer is from this place. The Owl brings the news and the Gal writes, and that is all I can tell you about it.

D. W. Beckley's family was visited last Sunday by R. M. Tate and family, of Oakland.

Miss Mary Skelton was the guest of Miss Jennie Beckley Sunday night.
Mrs. Mary C. Haydon's family was visited one day last week by Mrs. Henry T. Johnson.

John Pierce, of Clear Creek, visited this community last week.

D. W. Beckley attended church at Indian Fork Tuesday night.

Married—Jeff Beckley and Miss Kittie Jane Jeffries, both of Defoe, Ky., closed to Jeffersonville, Indiana, and were quietly married, his first wife having been dead only about six months, who was a nice, highly esteemed and beautiful young lady.

A series of meetings closed at Indian Fork Church Tuesday night with four additions to the membership, three by experience and one by letter.

D. W. Beckley visited his daughter, Mrs. Bertie Graves, of Clear Creek, last week.

I don't see why everybody don't subscribe for the ROUNDABOUT, for its weekly letters are newsy and very interesting to all.

I guess that Israel was at Mrs. Evelyn Tharp's, as his girl was there. IT MATTERS NOT WHO.

The laws of health are taught in the schools; but not in a life, to be of much practical benefit and are never illustrated by living examples, which in many cases might easily be done. A scholar who had just contracted a cold was brought before the school, so that all could hear the dry, loud cough and know its significance, see the thin white coating on the tongue and later, as the cold developed, see the profuse watery expectoration and thin watery discharge from the nose, not one of them would ever forget what the first symptoms of a cold were. The scholar should then be given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, freely, that all might see that even a severe cold could be cured in one or two days, or at least greatly mitigated, when properly treated as soon as the first symptoms appear. This remedy is famous for its cures of coughs, colds and croup. It is made especially for these diseases and is the most prompt and most reliable medicine known for the purpose, 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle.

Council Proceedings.

TUESDAY, Dec. 9, 1890.
Present—President Smith, Councilmen Buckley, Haly, Milam, Mangum, Tolson and Williams.
Absent—Councilmen Miles and Wakefield.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The following communication was received from Mayor Taylor:

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 9, 1890.

To the Honorable the Board of Councilmen of the city of Frankfort:

GENTLEMEN:—The accompanying ordinance, passed by your Board on the 11th day of November, 1890, authorizing and empowering P. H. Newman, City Clerk, to receive from and receipt to the Kentucky Midland Railroad Company for the city of Frankfort's certificate or certificates for the $100,000 of the preferred stock of the Kentucky Midland Railroad Company and for the $100,000 of the first mortgage six per cent. coupon bonds said Kentucky Midland Railroad Company, due the city of Frankfort under its contract with said Kentucky Midland Railroad Company, has been presented to me for my approval.

The bonds referred to are made payable to bearer, and, after being issued by the Central Trust Company of New York, in whose hands they now are, they become transferable by delivery.

It will readily occur to you that the interest of the city of Frankfort demands as safe custody and security for this species of property as is required for its money in its treasury.

I would respectfully suggest that, before these bonds are issued or delivered, provision should be made by your Board for their safe-keeping, by the appointment of a custodian for them, together with such indemnity against their loss as may be deemed advisable and proper.

Because the ordinance now before you fails to afford to the city the protection indicated, a sense of duty compels me to return it to you without my approval.

Your obedient servant,
E. H. TAYLOR, JR.,
Mayor.

The vote was then taken on the passage of the ordinance, the Mayor's veto to the contrary notwithstanding, and resulted yes, 5; nays, 2.

A petition was received from Treasurer Milam, asking that money that had been appropriated for charitable purposes and not called for be paid back into the treasury.

Petition of Wallace Warren, asking the remission of a fine imposed upon him by the city court. Granted; yes, 4; nays, 3.

Petition of J. W. Daily, to erect a frame blacksmith shop on the river bank at the upper end of Main street. Granted.

Petition of Alex. C. Henry for a coffee-house license. Granted.

Petition of Stephen Fuhs for a coffee-house license. Granted.

Petition of Mr. Ike Williams, asking to be released from the fine against escaped prisoners from the work-house. Granted.

Sheriff Noel presented two accounts against the city for costs in cases. Referred to finance committee.

An ordinance was passed authorizing the issuance of 20 school bonds of the denomination of $500 each. Adopted.

Ordination of Councilman Mangum, the vote was reconsidered, the yeas and nays called and it was passed unanimously.

Mr. Milam moved that the finance committee be directed to settle with the Marshal. The matter was deferred until an adjourned meeting on the 22d inst.

The city attorney presented a cigarette ordinance, which imposes a fine of five dollars for each offense, which was passed. Yeas, 4; nays, 1.

The usual accounts were then allowed and the council adjourned until next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

He was Sold for Eve.

Short time ago, while the Rev. Geo. O. Barnes was preaching at Lerwick, Scotland, he made some severe strictures on Adam and Eve for bringing sin into the world, when a dissenter in the audience arose and said: "God bless Eve; God bless her. If it hadn't been for her, none of us would have been here at this moment." He then opened the door and walked out.

Tloga.

Mrs. Mattie Mills, of Bagdad, was telegraphed to come to Frankfort last Saturday to see her son, Oscar Morris, who was very ill at that date.

Mrs. Jane Thompson and Mrs. Francis White, of Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting friends and relatives in these parts.

Sam. Blackley and wife, of Bagdad, visited Mrs. Sallie Pace last Saturday.

Smith B. and Walter Clark, John and Delia Hall were the guests of Wm. A. Duncan and wife last week.

Israel Tharp has gone to the city of Frankfort, to work at his trade, carpentering, with his son Allen.

Messrs. Joe and Wm. Scoobee have been very busy engaged the past week in repairing Tom D. Kesler's saw and grist mill.

Farmers are pretty much through killing hogs with us. Eat sausage, backbones, spareribs, lard and grow fat and join the F. & L. Union.

Prof. J. B. Secrest delivered a lecture in the interest of the F. & L. Union at Graves School-house a few nights since. At the close of the lecture 14 names were given the Secretary to become members thereof. Prof. is a powerful lecturer and those who heard him went home much wiser.

J. T. Moore and wife and Archie Moore and wife visited the city of Louisville one day last week with a view of buying some furniture, &c., for Mr. Archie Moore and wife, to furnish their new house with. Mr. Archie Moore, being a member of the F. & L. Union, purchased such articles as he needed at greatly reduced prices through the union. The fact is we will eventually swim.

Messrs. Wm. Clark and Israel Tharp, contractors, have just completed a beautiful residence for Mr. Archie Moore. Said building is given up by those who are competent to judge of said matters to be the noblest and completest job executed within ten miles square of this point. Much credit is due them for erecting so handsome a building.

CATCHUM

They All Failed.

The following letter from Mr. W. A. Thompson, of Columbus, Wis., is peculiarly interesting: "My wife," says he, "has been treated for her headache and nervous prostration by three doctors in New York, two in Chicago, one in Philadelphia, one in Cincinnati, and at the large institute in Buffalo for 16 months. They all failed. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine helped her wonderfully." This should be used in all headaches, backaches, changes of the nervous disturbances, fits, rheumatism, etc. Ask at J. W. Gayle's drug store for a trial bottle and Dr. Miles' new book on the Nerves and Heart.

Peeke's Bad Boy never can understand why people won't doubt the virtue of Quaker's unique chicken cholera cure, when it is a fact that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give entire satisfaction, by Phil. Carpenter.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken, and do not grip.

Misses Mary Ely and Cordelia Lindsey are visiting friends in Stamford, Connecticut.

Mrs. J. J. Brooks, of Richmond, is visiting her father, Mr. M. E. Jett, on Third street.

Mr. Iko Williams, of Louisville, has been visiting friends and relatives in this city this week.

Prof. E. A. Fellmer and daughter, Miss Nellie, went to Louisville yesterday morning.

Miss Lizzie Crutcher, of Bellpoint, is visiting her cousin, Miss Carrie Page, in Louisville.

Mr. Geo. F. Berry left Tuesday for New York to attend the funeral of Mr. Marshall J. Allen.

Mrs. J. Buford Hendrick and daughter have returned from a visit to friends in Louisville.

Miss McHenry, who has been visiting friends here, left for her home in Hartford on Tuesday last.

Judge H. Clay McKee and Judge Edward R. French, of Mt. Sterling, were in the city on Wednesday.

Mr. J. R. Currens has rented his farm below the city and removed to his farm near Salvisa, in Mercer county.

Miss Sallie McKenzie, who has been visiting friends in this city and county, left Thursday morning for her home in Smithville, Bullitt county.

Mr. M. E. Jett and wife have removed from their farm near Alton to the cottage on Todd street, which they recently purchased from Mr. W. H. Coke.

Mr. E. B. Coleman and sisters, Misses Lucy and Aussie, who have been residing at Benson Station for many years, have removed to Louisville to reside.

Mr. Otto Von Borries, formerly of this city, but who has been residing in New York for several years, was in the city yesterday. He has removed back to Louisville to reside.

Transferring Convicts.

Messrs. Mason & Ford Co. have begun transferring convicts to the Branch Penitentiary at Eddyville.

One hundred and twenty were taken from the Penitentiary here on Wednesday night.

Bellepoint Election.

The election for Councilmen in Bellepoint came off Tuesday.

A straight Democratic and a Citizens' Ticket were in the field and an active canvass was made on both sides.

The Citizens rushed in their vote early in the morning and won the race, the vote standing 52 to 37.

Finger Cut Off.

Pat. Rody, an employee at Messrs. Gaines & Tanner's Capital City Machine Works, had the first joint of the third finger of the left hand cut off Thursday afternoon by dropping a piece of machinery upon it.

The injury was dressed by Dr. N. J. Sawyer, and he is getting along nicely.

Eloped.

Mr. Henry Crutcher, Jr., son of Mr. Henry Crutcher, of this county, and Miss Jennie Robinson, daughter of Mr. W. B. Robinson, eloped from this city on Wednesday and were married in Jeffersonville, Indiana.

The groom is not quite twenty years old and the bride not fifteen, and the opposition of the parents was on account of their ages.

The happy young couple returned to the bride's parents on Thursday evening, and were forgiven.

Beautifully Decorated.

The large show windows of the enterprising firm of Hudson, Humphries & Cassell are the most handsomely decorated of any house in the city and attract more attention.

In the window upon the corner of St. Clair and Main streets is represented an ice-bound cavern with the ice King perched high up upon a block of ice, with gentle furnishing goods strewn about him, while in the other window is represented a full rigged ship at sea, laden with goods for the house, with light house and life saving station upon the coast close by.

The work was handsomely executed by Mr. Harry Harmon, of Louisville. Messrs. H. H. & C. always keep their business before the people, and their latest attempt to catch the eye of the public is a great success.

Are Next Friday.

Dr. W. L. Kelley will make his regular monthly visit to this city on Friday next, December 10th. His headquarters are always at the Capital Hotel, where he can be found at any time after 8:30 in the morning. Don't forget the date, December 10th.

Somewhat Mixed.

The Lexington Transcript speaks of Hon. W. O. Mize, of Morgan county, as an ex-Congressman and the Woodford Sun says Hon. W. E. Simms, of Paris, was a member of the Confederate Congress in 1869. If Mr. Mize was ever in Congress we never heard of it, but perhaps the Transcript can tell us what district he represented. As there was no Confederate Congress until 1861, the Sun puts Capt. Simms' service in that body at a time when he was representing the Ashland district in the Congress of the United States. It is up, boys, on the political history of your State.

On The Hill.

Weather is nice and agreeable. Parties and visiting are all the go in this section of the country.

Mr. R. S. Dinkle and Mr. Tom Austin were the guests of Miss Cora Martin and Miss Eva Cain last Sunday week.

Mr. Jim Moore was the guest of Miss Joy Turner a few Sundays ago. He is the leader at the Squire's now, but I think she has a little eye at at Harp.

Mr. Austin you are crazy. There are no martins in this part of the country this time of the year. You will have to go again. They say you are well pleased with your visit.

Miss Martin, please give him a little more encouragement. I think he will sum up enough courage to come again. When spring returns you may go a bird hunting again. Don't get scared off the first time. Try again. I think you will win the victory.

This story is as growing old, but nevertheless it is good enough to be published. Don't you think so, young friends?

Xmas will soon be here, but I expect nothing this time.

The protracted meeting has closed at Indian Fork, and also at Bald Knob.

The ROUNDABOUT has a welcome home at this place.

Sold by J. W. Gayle, Druggist. 9

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS OF DEATH. Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pinpoints or sores, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purged to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold everywhere on positive guarantee. Death of Mrs. Kendall.

Mrs. Mollie Griffin Kendall, wife of Clarence L. Kendall, of the ROUNDBOUT Bindery, died at the residence of her father, Mr. Dennis Griffin, at 11 past twelve o'clock Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness, aged 33 years. She was a most excellent young lady, a devoted wife, affectionate daughter, and a consistent member of the Catholic Church. A little more than three months since she was stricken with paralysis, and since that time has been slowly and gradually sinking until her death at any time within the last two weeks would not have been a surprise to her physician or family.

Less than two years ago she was married, and her untimely death is a heavy blow to her young husband, her aged father, sisters and brothers, who have the warmest sympathy of numerous friends. Her death was painless and she passed away as though falling into a gentle sleep.

The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from the Church of the Good Shepherd and was largely attended.

The family request us to return their heartfelt thanks to the many friends for numerous acts of kindness during the long illness of the deceased.

The services were conducted by Rev. Father L. Young and the following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. Pat. Newman, sr., Geo. A. Lewis, Chas. J. Weitzel, Chas. Stephens, Thos. J. Brislan, Geo. Flynn, M. J. Meagher and Uva Mangan.

M. Busan has a large stock of toys, candies and cakes for the holidays. Call and see him. 14-2t.

CURED AFTER SIX YEARS. MANKATO, MINN., Sept. 30th, '97.

To whom it may concern: I hereby certify that I have tried many great physicians of reputation in the large cities in the west, and for six years I sought for one skillful enough to cure my daughter of a nervous disease, but without success. I was then induced to try the Rev. E. K. K. of Fort Wayne, Ind., who was reported as being very successful in treating diseases of this character, and I am pleased to say that his skillful treatment my daughter was in a short time completely cured, and she refused to accept any compensation for his services. I cheerfully recommended his parties needing his services. My daughter and myself will ever have him in our hearts in grateful remembrance.

A great bore—a city election.
Mrs. F. P. Lewis has returned home from a protracted visit to York, Pa.
Mrs. Mag. Harney, of Louisville, is visiting the family of Mr. Alex.
Robertson.
Miss Addie Ziegler who has been residing in York, Pa., for several years, is home for a visit to her mother and family.
Miss Nannie Clark, of Hutton, is visiting the family of Mr. Al. Clark, on Kentucky avenue.

Died—On Friday morning, Dec. 5th,
Alice Lee, daughter of J. G. Brawner, in the 6th year of her age.
The friends of the afflicted family deeply sympathize with them in the heavy sorrow that has befallen them in the death of their little daughter. It is indeed a bitter grief, but let them remember that "He doeth all things well," and that in the removal of this dear child from the earth, they are saving her from mercies to us, the same love he incarnated. He called little children unto Him and took them in His arms and blessed them saying "of such is the kingdom of heaven."
No pain in life or death's cold arms.
The world—so full of pain has been left to the rest.

Opt usually quiet city has for the past two or three weeks been in a state of widest excitement over a city election. The scenes which meet the eye and the sounds which grate upon the ear are such as are not to be compared to sicken the heart and fill the soul with fear, while they fill all thinking men with forebodings for the future of a city where human character is considered of so little value, and where the gravest laws of the land are so openly set at defiance. The time has come when nine-tenths of the disgraceful deeds that mar the peace of the city, gross, vulgar, and brutal outrages and abuses and animosities engendered by these accused elections.

It is not a shame that we who brute so much about civilization and culture, should be so easily brought feeling being to such an extent as to make him a brute; buy him as you would a hog; deny him the facilities by which he might become a man. The course of mankind, whisky, until you accomplish your purpose with him, and then you will be a man. You will be a man, and you will be a powerful air and pronounce him a degraded wretch. Is it not time for re-fection when we find ourselves willing to be degraded, and to be degraded self-elevation, instead of regrets and grave consideration? Men whom fortune keeps at arm's length, and whom the world looks upon as outcast, ought to touch the hearts of those who buy their rights of enfranchisement, but who are not yet free. They are calling themselves the superior of

A Fortunate Woman.

Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., as reason to be very thankful. She was a great sufferer from heart disease. "I was very short of breath, and hungry spells, pain in side, fluttering, faintness, etc. After taking two bottles of Dr. Miles' New Heart cure, she says, 'I am better than for years. My mind and eyesight have been restored.' I advise all persons thus afflicted to use this tried remedy." J. W. Gayle, druggist, recommends and guarantees it. Dr. Miles' work on Heart Disease, containing marvelous testimonials, is free.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

UNRISHED BY GLOVER & DURRETT,
LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,201 hds., with a record for the same period in 1938 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 140,489 hds. For old burley we have not only a strong but very high demand for the best and the common grades without color, regardless of condition, and tobacco not in sweet condition is in high and low. The variance in value between the common and select grades is unprecedentedly great. The offerings of new burley tobacco amount to 160 headcases, ranging in price all the way from $1,000 to $18.75 per 100. The weather conditions for several weeks past have been such as render it impossible to market the tobacco crop except to a very small degree.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 13, 1890.

The Episcopal Orphans' Home.

The Court of Appeals on Saturday rendered a decision in the case of Penick vs. Thorn's trustee and Reynolds' executrix vs. Same, reversing the decision of the Franklin Circuit Court.

The action is the outgrowth of a bequest in 1861 by the late John H. Hanna, of fifty shares of stock in the Farmers' Bank, to Rev. John N. Norton, the rector of Ascension Episcopal Church in this city, who, in accordance with the will of the testator, was appointed trustee to hold the stock in trust for the use and benefit of the Orphans' Home connected with the church. The trusteeship was to be continued in the succeeding rectors of the church. Mr. Hanna was the uncle of the late J. W. Hunt Reynolds, the owner of the Fleetwood stock farm.

Mr. Hanna gave the whole of his estate to his widow, Mrs. Mary S. Hanna, subject, however, to such of his "devises, legacies and bequests hereinafter contained as may actually vest or take effect according to the terms and intent thereof." The bequest in question reads as follows: "I give and bequeath unto John N. Norton, trustee, in trust, fifty shares of the stock of the Farmers' Bank of Kentucky, for the use and benefit of the Orphans' Home of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Frankfort; and the semi-annual dividends of said stock are to be paid over to Mrs. Mary S. Hanna, to be used by her for the support of said Orphans' Home, and upon her death the said Orphans' Home is to designate some person to make the disbursements for the use aforesaid."

The Orphans' Home thus endowed was established several years prior to 1860. It was conducted in a house owned by Mr. Hanna on Third Street, South Frankfort, now occupied by Capt. Sam. M. Gaines, and was in successful operation at the time of Mr. Hanna's death, in 1861. Mrs. Hanna, the widow, died in 1870, leaving a will by which, after various legacies to friends, she devised the bulk of her estate to her niece and adopted daughter, Mrs. Kittie Thom, and her nephew and adopted son, J. W. Hunt Reynolds. By the eighth clause of her will she dedicated the Orphans' Home mentioned to the uses of an asylum for poor orphan girls, and constituted Mr. Reynolds her trustee for carrying out her plans concerning it, to which end she devised the title to Mr. Reynolds. She then continued: "If no sufficient fund shall be provided for the support of the asylum, and, in consequence, the property should cease to be used for that purpose, it shall revert to my said nephew, who shall thereupon retain it as his own."

In 1881 the house ceased to be used as an Orphans' Home, whereupon Mrs. Thom, by reason of a clause in Mr. Hanna's will, bequeathing to her all the railroad and bank stock of his estate, and also Mr. Reynolds' executrix, under the will of Mrs. Hanna, separately instituted suit to recover possession of the stock, which, at this date, is worth about $7,000. Rev. E. A. Penick, the present rector of Ascension Church, contested the claim on the ground that the bequest was a valid trust, and a charity still subsisting and enforceable; and that the class of persons who are the beneficiaries thereof are still entitled and ready to receive the benefit of said trust.

In the lower court the case was decided in favor of Mrs. Thom, when Mr. Reynolds' executrix and Mr. Penick both appealed the case to the Court of Appeals. Judge Pryor, who delivered the opinion of the court, holds that the bequest by Mr. Hanna to the church was absolute, and that Mrs. Hanna had no right to convey by will what had already passed out of Mr. Hanna's possession to Mr. Norton, in trust for the church. The case was therefore reversed.

Greatly Improved.

The many friends of Prof. E. A. Fellmer, who has been afflicted with failing sight for the past six months, will be delighted to know that there is still hope of his vision being improved. He and his daughter, Miss Nellie, returned Saturday from a trip to Springfield, Ohio, where he consulted Dr. Bliss, an eminent specialist, who fitted his eyes with a pair of glasses which enabled him to recognize Miss Nellie across the room, a thing he had not done for months, and with which he can see to get about alone upon the streets. Dr. Bliss also gave Prof. Fellmer hope of restoring the sight of our eye, which it was thought was entirely gone.

The entire community rejoice with Prof. Fellmer on his being restored to sight.

Knocked Out of Joint.

Mr. Joseph Savoy, a cooper employed at the Hermitage Distillery shops, was engaged in reventing an iron hoop one day last week, when the iron slipped from his grasp just as he was bringing the heavy hammer down, and he struck his left hand, knocking the finger out of joint at the knuckle and bruising the hand so badly that he has since been unable to do any work.

Shot in the Knee.

Major Jett, son of Judge W. L. Jett, was fooling with a loaded pistol, on Saturday, when it went off and shot him in the right knee. Fortunately the knee cap is not injured seriously and Dr. U. V. Williams, the attending physician, thinks the leg will not be stiff.

How Do You Like It?

What do the good citizens think of the scenes enacted upon our streets last Saturday? Do they propose to sit idly by and let this thing go on from bad to worse, or will they arise in their might and say that it shall be stopped, and that quickly? Are the hoodlums and clection bums to be allowed to terrorize the town simply because an election is being held, or are the laws to be enforced on election days as well as every other day in the year?

Fatal Shooting.

Frank Kennedy, a tinner, while under the influence of liquor, went to the polls in the Second Ward Saturday afternoon, about half past five o'clock, where he got into a difficulty with Lewis Weitzel, a stonemason, which resulted in Kennedy being knocked down by Weitzel. As Weitzel was in the act of leaning over Kennedy, as he lay upon the pavement, the latter drew a pistol and shot Weitzel, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Kennedy was taken to his home in South Frankfort, where he died at ten minutes to nine o'clock Monday morning. Kennedy was arrested immediately and put in jail, but was released on $500 bond Sunday morning by County Judge Williams. He was rearrested Monday morning and lodged in jail as soon as it was known Weitzel was dead.

Weitzel left a wife and four small children. Mrs. Kennedy has been very ill ever since the shooting and fears are entertained for her recovery. The examining trial of Kennedy will take place on Monday.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 13, 1890.

Died in Arkansas.

Ed. Conner, a former well known Irish citizen of South Frankfort, died in Arkansas last week. The remains were brought here for burial and the funeral took place from the Catholic Church Tuesday.

Will it Be Enforced?

There is a very stringent ordinance of the city prohibiting the firing of pistols, crackers, &c., upon the streets on Christmas; will it be enforced? The hoodlums were given free rein last Saturday, why not give the small boy a chance? He is not near so dangerous an animal.

Leg Sprained.

Mr. S. T. Pence, of Bellepoint, was getting into his buggy Monday afternoon, when his horse started to run away before he could get securely seated, and he was thrown out, his left leg being badly sprained, so that he has since been compelled to walk with a cane.

Gone Home III.

Hon. Henry D. McHenry, delegate from Ohio county in the Constitutional Convention, was taken to his home in Hartford on Tuesday in quite a serious condition, from stomach trouble. It is feared he will not be able to return here during the sitting of the Convention.

Black-Westfall.

Mr. Howard Black, of this county, and Miss Mary Westfall, sister of Mrs. Sam. M. Gaines, of this city, were married on Wednesday at the residence of the bride's sister in Bardonia.

Mr. S. Black and wife and Mr. A. W. Macklin, of this county, and Mr. Nathan Quilling, of Georgetown, left this city Tuesday morning to attend the wedding.

Court of Claims.

The Court of Claims was in session Tuesday and Wednesday and fixed the county levy for 1891 at 40 cents on each $100; 21 cents for railroad purposes, and $2 for tithe tax. Squires Pat McDonald and C. W. Threlkeld and Judge B. G. Williams were elected Sinking Fund Commissioners for the ensuing year. Some other routine business was transacted and the Court adjourned until the first Tuesday in February.

Its Excellent Qualities.

Comment to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste, and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

14-14.

Died in New York.

A telegram was received in this city Monday announcing the death of Marshall J. Allen, Esq., member of the distilling firms of W. A. Gaines & Co. and Allen-Bradley Co., of this city, at his home in New York City. Mr. Allen had been an invalid for a year or more and his death was not unexpected. He was also a member of the firm Paris, Allen & Co., in New York.

Mr. Allen commenced life upon the lowest round and by industry and business capacity had built up a large fortune. The offices of this city were closed on Tuesday and Wednesday, and eulogies were pronounced by a placard announcing his death.

A son of Mr. M. D. Pusser, a merchant of Gibraltar, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism for a year or more, as to be unable to work or go to school. His father concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm on the boy. It soon cured him and he has since walked one and a half miles to school and back every school day. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m

Nat. Goodwin.

Nat. Goodwin has long been a favorite with New York audiences. In broad burlesque, and his friends went to see him at the Fifth Avenue Theatre in a new role Monday evening with some misgivings. He has chosen high comedy and appeared in a play called "A Gold Mine," which was written by Brander Mathews and George H. Jessop.

The play is full of bright and witty sayings, well adapted to the several characters, which include an American from California, who goes to London to sell a gold mine, an Irish Member of Parliament, and the members of an English household. There is but one scene for the three acts, as in the case with "Sweet Lavender" and "An International Match."

Goodwin appeared soon after the curtain was raised. He wore a jet black mustache and gray hair, typical of an American who had aged before his time. He was entertaining throughout. The play does not drag, and is full of laughable scenes, making an evening of rare entertainment.—N. Y. Press.

Mr. Goodwin will appear at the Opera House on Monday evening next as the Nominee.

For pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. For sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m

Dr. Bogman.

Last month Dr. Bogman, the surgeon-specialist, who visits Frankfort, arranged for extra time at Lexington, which was a point most convenient for several of his cases which required surgical operations. Several of the operations he performed were peculiarly delicate, but the removal of a cancer from the face of a gentleman from Harlan county attracted much attention from the fact that the patient was about town all the time making purchases, as comfortable and free from pain as any person in health.

The cancer was lifeless in sixty hours and came out in six days. He lost no sleep, and whenever questioned, said he was perfectly comfortable, more so than for five months previous to treatment. This process of curing cancer was first suggested to Dr. Bogman some twenty years since, while pursuing some original investigations in heteroplasia growths with the microscope. It took years to develop and perfect it, but it was perfect and he now guarantees every case. The discovery seems little short of a miracle. Removal by the knife is invariably followed by a return of the cancer. Extraction by caustics is always accompanied by excruciating pain, but Dr. Bogman's treatment, while a positive cure, is absolutely painless and safe.

The doctor will be at the Capital Hotel Wednesday, December 17th, until 4 p. m.

An Open Letter.

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 2d, 1890. To the citizens of Frankfort and surrounding country:

I take this method of informing my friends and patrons that I am better prepared this season to supply your needs than I have been at any time heretofore. I admit that my stock is not as complete as I would like it, but it has been selected with care, and I have a variety bought direct from first hands, which enables me to sell at bottom prices. Persons needing anything during the holiday season I invite you to call, especially those whom I have not had the pleasure of seeing in my place of business. I ask you to call; you shall have polite attention whether you are made a customer or not. I have by sobriety and strict attention to business aimed to merit a share of the public patronage, of which I have so far received a gratifying amount. I have no inducements or snaps to offer, nor cater to trade on these conditions. All I ask is that people call on me and see if my prices don't accord with the times, as nothing but first-class goods are sold by me, at living profits. As to my work department, it has my personal care and I assure you that careful attention to me will receive careful attention for the very least money that first-class work can be done. Thanking my friends and patrons for past favors and asking that I may be remembered in the future, I remain

Yours respectfully,
W. L. COPPERSMITH.

SLEEP IN PEACE BY USING PRATT'S KILLER FOR BED BUGS.

This preparation is superior to all others for the following reasons: It kills the bugs instantly. It effectually destroys their eggs, therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season. It possesses no odors and does not injure insects in which it can be used in places which they can not reach. Its odor is agreeable, and it is warranted not to injure carpets, linen or furniture. No fatal effects can result from its use, as it contains no poison, which fact should give it a place in every household.

In determining the propriety of indulging in any kind of amusements, the first question which should occupy the mind is, is this right or wrong in itself? In some cases the answer can be easily and promptly given, and there can be no doubt of its correctness. If conscience says it is wrong, there should be no hesitation in refusing the indulgence, however fascinating it may be. We cannot afford to violate the dictations of conscience for sake of any momentary pleasure.
